Soviets Begin Full Retreat As Hungarian Planes Hover

Army Joins The Rebels; Cardinal Mindszenty Free

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—The Russian retreat from Budapest appeared in full swing today. Soviet tanks—leaving their dead and wounded—headed away under a shower of leaflets from Hungarian air force planes threatening to bomb them if they tarried.

Russian armored forces guarding the Danube River bridges withdrew at dawn. Others fell into the lines of retreat throughout the morning.

The Hungarian army, now completely on the side of the revolution, trucked in fresh platoons to relieve street patrols of the ragged insurgents. The army took over the citadel, a fortress commanding the entire city, and ringed it with antitank guns.

Rebel anger which had been directed against the Russians was channeled entirely for the moment against remnants of the equally detested AVH, the Red Hungarian secret police.

Vengeance hunts for the members of the AVH, which Premier Imre Nagy's government has ordered dissolved, developed all over the revolt-torn city.

Unofficial Hungarian sources said 130 secret policemen, captured yesterday in a battle for Budapest's Communist party headquarters, were hanged by their heels and beaten to death. A precinct party headquarters was a prime target in the street fighting today.

Expunging of Soviet signs was accelerated with the government's announcement of its decision to end the one party dictatorship and revive the multiparty governmental system that prevailed before the Reds took over in 1948.

In all this turmoil, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty returned in triumph to the city where he was condemned by a Communist court in 1949 to life imprisonment as a traitor. Church bells pealed a welcome.

Hungarian troops escorted the prelate, who appeared in good health, to the palace he had occupied as Hungary's primate. Armed guards were posted there.

The Hungarian air force threatened yesterday to attack the Russians unless they left Budapest within 12 hours. The 12 hours expired without such an attack.

Bitter fighting was reported in some sections early this morning. The secret police force on numbered about 30,000 and some of Budapest's slum areas. The insurgents were pressing a house to house search.

President to Make Major Campaign Talk in Philadelphia

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower decided today to keep an engagement for a major campaign address in Philadelphia tomorrow night.

His nationwide television-radio talk there will deal with the Middle East crisis and America's "role of responsibility in the world."

Whether Eisenhower would make the trip to Philadelphia had been up in the air since Monday when the Middle East crisis developed with the Israeli thrust into Egypt.

A scheduled trip today to Texas, Oklahoma and Tennessee was called off on that account. At Philadelphia, Eisenhower will address a campaign rally. His speech will be carried on TV and radio over the NBC network.

V. Rodick Is Named Chamber President

Vernon Rodick, 1603 West Tenth, president of the National Engineering and Manufacturing Co., was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting of the board Tuesday afternoon.

Rodick, who was born in Kansas, moved to Kansas City in 1936 and three years ago came to Sedalia. During World War II he served 42 months in the Seabees. It was through the Chamber of Commerce that his firm came to Sedalia and he has been very active in that organization since coming here. He served as second vice-president and first vice-president and has worked in every way possible for the good of the Chamber. He is an active member of the First Methodist Church and is also on the Boy Scout committee. Rodick has a wife, Florence, and three sons, Mike, 10, Steve, 7, and Philip, 6.

Other officers elected were: Del Heckart, first vice-president; James L. Van Wagner, Jr., second vice-president; and Mrs. Ike L. Warren, treasurer. Jack Faber, executive manager, was re-elected for another year.

With the election of Van Wagner as second vice-president, the man who was eighth, according to the number of votes received, John Snodgrass, will automatically become a director.

The meeting of the combined boards was presided over by Kenneth U. Love, past president, at the request of Floyd Priddy, president, who was out-of-town. It was opened with invocation by Wes Murphy.

Reports were made by the re-

More Hunters Invade Woods Second Day

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—An increasing number of sportsmen invaded Missouri's deer woods today the second day of the state's five day hunting season.

Conservation Commission agents from most of the 63 deer counties reported skies generally were clearing after opening day rains dropped from .11 to 1.25 inches of moisture.

The rain did little to lessen the first day kill, which added up to 1,905 deer actually checked by conservation agents by nightfall. That was 230 more than the kill for the first day a year ago.

Two hunter accidents occurred the first day.

One man was shot in the thigh by an unknown hunter in Washington County but he was reported recovering.

In Chariton County, Melvin Guilford of Keytesville was hunting alone. He shot a buck and was gored by the wounded animal. Guilford struggled a half mile to his truck and drove to town for medical attention. He, too, was reported recovering.

Camden County, in the center of the Lake of the Ozarks resort area, was the first day's biggest game producer. A total of 171 deer were checked by agents by nightfall there. That was 28 more than the next highest county, Ste. Genevieve.

More Moisture Is Expected Over Weekend

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Rain producing conditions moved out of Missouri today leaving virtually every part of the state with some moisture.

The weatherman expects a return of showers about Friday or Saturday and again early next week.

One of the heaviest falls recorded was 2.12 at Oldfield in Christian County. Other points reported an inch or more were West Plains 1.32, Rolla 1.20, Roby 1.14 and Galena and Lebanon one inch each.

Springfield, which has recorded a deficiency of more than five feet of moisture in the past five years, reported .71.

Other rainfall reports: Salem .98, Ozark .90, Osceola .74, Lake-side .71, Nevada .65, Joplin and Warsaw .60, Malden .56, Farmington .51, Gasconade and Vandalia .50, Sedalia .40, Jefferson City .38, Waverly .35, Columbia .32, St. Joseph .31, Booneville .17 and Chillicothe .13.

The forecast is for generally fair in the west and decreasing cloudiness in the east tonight with Thursday's highs between 65 and 75.

Showers forecast for later this week are expected to bring average precipitation of half to an inch in the northwest to an inch or more over the southeast.

Local Lumber Dealers Elected to Office

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Francis Knollmeyer of Linn was elected president of the Central Missouri Assn. of Retail Lumber Dealers yesterday.

Wallace Wilmer of Knob Noster was chosen vice president, Eugene Britt of Leeton, secretary, and Bob Johns, Jr., of Sedalia, treasurer.

Soviet Makes Major Shift In Policy

Declaration Says Troops Will Leave Hungarian Capital

MOSCOW (AP)—In a major policy shift, the Soviet Union says it wants all the Communist countries to be completely sovereign and is willing to talk about the disposition of Soviet troops in three of them.

An unusual declaration issued by the government last night was interpreted by diplomatic observers as indicating Moscow was seeking a graceful way out of an increasingly embarrassing situation within the Communist camp.

In conciliatory tones, it promised that the Soviet army will evacuate Budapest "as soon as this is considered necessary by the Hungarian government."

It also acknowledged that "the further presence of Soviet armed units in Hungary may cause even further aggravation of the situation."

The declaration said there are Soviet units in only three of the "peoples' democracies," Hungary, Romania and Poland.

It went on: "With a view to insuring mutual security... the Soviet government is ready to examine with other Socialist countries participating in the Warsaw Treaty the question of Soviet troops stationed on the territory of the above-mentioned countries."

The Soviet troops in Poland, Hungary and Romania are there under terms of the Warsaw Pact, a Russian-commanded mutual defense alliance formed last year by the Soviet Union and her East European allies.

Soviet Defense Minister Marshal Georgi Zhukov told Western correspondents last night all the pact members would have to agree to the withdrawal of Soviet troops from Hungary, a major demand of the rebels there.

There was no mention in last night's declaration of Soviet troops in East Germany.

The declaration spoke of "the great commonwealth of Socialist nations" and said its members could build their relations on the "principle of full equality, respect of territorial integrity, state independence and sovereignty and noninterference in the domestic affairs of one another."

This, it said, presupposes continued close fraternal ties in economic, political and cultural spheres.

The Soviet Union said it was putting into practice decisions of last February's 20th Soviet Communist Party Congress based on "maintaining the complete sovereignty of every Socialist state."

Two Nations Stop Action Of UN Council

Britain, France Split US Alliance; Blow to Prestige

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Britain and France used their vetoes twice last night to tie the hands of the U. N. Security Council in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting while they rushed troops toward the Suez Canal zone.

Their actions drove a deep wedge into their alliance with the United States.

The vetoes were viewed as a hard blow to the 11-nation council's prestige, already lowered by 78 Soviet vetoes in 11 years.

The council adjourned only 27 minutes before the 11:30 p.m. deadline set by Britain and France for Egyptian-Israeli agreement to their proposal to land troops along the waterway nationalized by Egypt July 26.

The two Western powers gave Egypt and Israel 12 hours to stop fighting and draw back 10 miles from the 103-mile canal so that British and French forces could move "temporarily" into Port Said, Ismailia and Suez "to separate the belligerents and to guarantee freedom of transit through the canal." They said if Egypt and Israel did not consent, they would move in anyway. Israel agreed but Egypt refused.

Another council meeting was scheduled this afternoon to take up an Egyptian charge that Britain and France were committing aggression. Egypt said that until the council took "necessary measures, Egypt has no choice but to defend itself."

Britain and France had argued that the council could not act swiftly enough to halt the fighting and prevent interference with canal traffic. Accordingly both vetoed.

1. A U.S. resolution calling on Israel and Egypt immediately to cease fire, on Israel to withdraw its armed forces from Egypt and all U.N. members to avoid using force in the area or giving Israel military, economic or financial aid in her operation. (The vote was 7-2 with Australia and Belgium abstaining.)

2. A Soviet resolution that amounted to the U. S. proposal with its teeth pulled, calling only for a cease-fire and withdrawal of Israeli troops. (The vote was 7-2 with Belgium and the United States abstaining.)

Telephone Employees Authorize Strike; No Action in Prospect

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Strike action against the six-state Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. has been authorized by 51,000 union employees but no immediate strike is in prospect.

A company spokesman said last night the contract between the firm and Communications Workers' District 6 continues in effect until 30 days after one party gives notice of termination and no such notice has been given. The primary term of the contract expired at midnight.

The employees voted 8 to 1 to authorize the union negotiating committee to take strike action if necessary, the union announced. District 6 has requested approval of the union's international executive board for such action.

Contract negotiations began Oct. 8 and are continuing.

A union official said the company has proposed a wage increase averaging about 5 cents an hour, but without any increase for some groups.

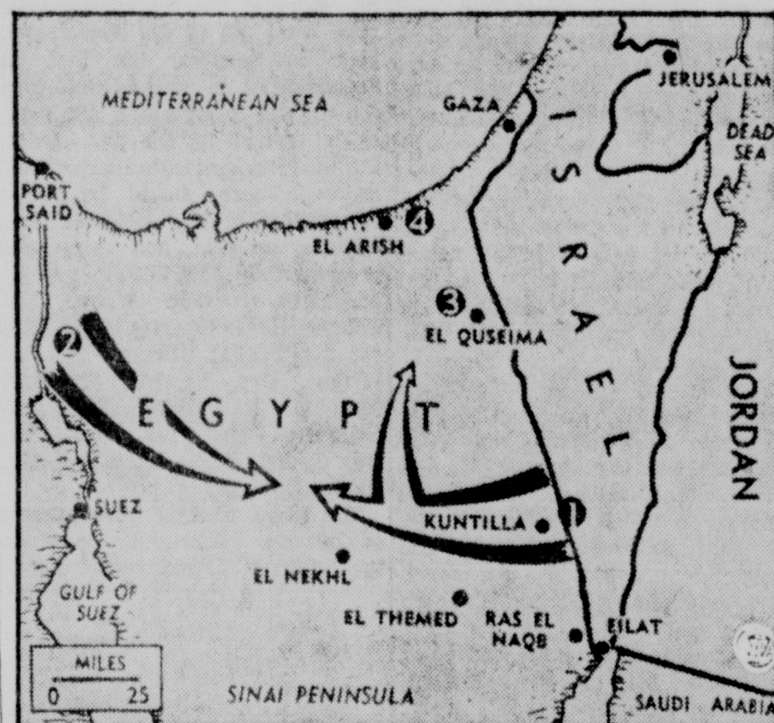

The union called for an across-the-board increase. Southwestern Bell operates in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and a small area of Illinois.

GOP Sends Benson's Son to Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Republican National Committee is sending Agriculture secretary Benson's eldest son to Missouri tomorrow to answer farmers' questions.

The son, Reed A. Benson, will speak at Kansas City at noon, at Fayette at 3:30 in the afternoon and at Marshall at 7:30 in the evening. A former Mormon Church missionary, young Benson is a field representative for the GOP committee.

Secretary Benson made an air tour of Missouri's northwestern drought area Oct. 10 and sandwiched in talks at Kansas City, St. Joseph, Maryville, Albany, Columbia and Higginsville.

FIGHTING IN EGYPT—This newsmap indicates the sweep of fighting on Sinai Peninsula as invading Israeli forces and Egyptian troops clashed. (1) Israeli's initial drive into Egyptian territory swept deep into the Sinai Desert with some reports placing troops within a score of miles of Suez Canal. (2) Egyptian forces counter-attack with land forces and air support, reportedly shooting down at least one Israeli observation plane. (3) Arm of Israeli forces sweep northward, capturing El Quseima. (4) Unconfirmed reports that Egyptian Mediterranean town of El Arish is in Israeli hands, indicating a third Israeli force in action. ## US Stands by Pledge—

Ike to Make National TV, Radio Talk on Middle East

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will go on nationwide television and radio tonight to discuss the Middle East crisis.

This was announced shortly before noon today by the White House which also repeated that the United States is still standing by its pledge to assist any victim of aggression in the Middle East.

Britain is reported to have informed the U. S. government it considers the pledge defunct. The pledge bound the United States, Britain and France to work together in the Middle East to preserve peace.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower's talk tonight would be about 15 minutes—beginning at 7 p.m. EST.

All major networks are expected to carry it.

Hagerty said further Eisenhower will "outline the American position" regarding the tense situation resulting from the Israeli thrust into Egypt on Monday.

Since that time Britain and France have announced plans to place troops in Egypt, and the two governments joined yesterday in vetoing a U.S. resolution in the U.N. Security Council.

The U.S. resolution called for a cease-fire in Egypt, and for other U.N. member nations to refrain from any use of force in the area.

Hagerty said in response to newsmen's questions that Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Anthony Eden have exchanged additional personal messages regarding the Middle East situation.

The differences of viewpoint between London and Washington were emphasized by a statement Eden made today in the House of Commons.

He said Britain must protect her own vital interests in the Middle East with or without prior agreement of the United States. At another White House meeting, going on simultaneously, key administration officials were discussing what Hagerty called "government problems—studies—connected with the current situation in the Middle East."

There were reports from sources outside the White House that the United States was ready to cut off all economic aid to Israel in a move to force Israeli troops to withdraw from Egypt's Sinai Peninsula.

This action, officials said, was part of a series of countermeasures being drafted by the administration in an effort to keep the Israeli-Egyptian clashes from erupting into bigger hostilities in the Middle East.

Military Bases Attacked

Both British, French Launch Air, Naval Operations in Area Around Suez Canal

LONDON (AP)—Britain and France put Egyptian targets under bombardment tonight, and the Cairo radio reported high explosive bombs had been dropped on Cairo itself.

The two Western powers were evidently trying to topple the Nasser government in addition to taking over control of the Suez Canal zone.

The Cairo broadcast said the bombing was at 7 p.m. (noon EST). It asserted there was some damage but no loss of life.

Cairo is a city of three million. At 8:40 p.m. Cairo time the British Defense Ministry announced:

"An air offensive by bomber aircraft under Allied command is at this moment being launched against military targets in Egypt."

The two powers named Gen. Sir Charles Keightley, formerly commander in chief of Britain's Middle East land forces, to be commander in chief of the expeditionary force.

The Defense Ministry said their job is to "intervene to secure compliance with the requirements (laid before) the Israeli and Egyptian governments."

Cairo Radio said the bombing of that capital was carried on by British jet bombers.

Today's first announcement of the long-rumored attack came from Paris. This said the aerial and naval bombardments got underway at 6:40 p.m. Cairo time.

Earlier, the Israeli radio reported a one-hour air raid alarm at Port Said, at the Mediterranean mouth of the Suez Canal.

Telegraphic communication between London and Cairo had been suspended for some hours at the time the Cairo broadcast was heard.

The French and British contended fighting on the Sinai Peninsula endangered the canal because of aerial and paratroop activity in armored columns, reported by the British Prime Minister Eden to be nearing the canal zone.

Eden told the House of Commons, during angry questioning today by Labor members, that Britain and France intended to carry out their purpose of occupying key canal zone points, including Suez, Port Said and Ismailia.

Despite the open disapproval of the United States of the action, Eden said:

"We stand by what we said and we shall carry it out."

Eden said Britain had to protect her own vital interests in the Middle East with or without U.S. agreement.

Announcements from both Cairo and Tel Aviv, the Israeli army headquarters, indicated heavy fighting continued on the eastern approach to the canal.

Tipton Approves Two Bond Issues Again

TIPTON, Mo. (AP)—Tipton residents overwhelmingly passed two bond issues totaling $152,000 in a special election yesterday.

A $143,000 issue for extending and improving the municipal waterworks and sewage system was approved by a vote of 272 to 26. Also passed was a $9,000 issue for purchase of a new fire truck. The vote was 277 to 21.

On Sept. 4 voters approved both bond issues in a special election, but it was declared void when someone questioned whether the election had been advertised properly. It then was decided to hold another election.

about the best definition of a boy he ever heard and then he went on to select a text for his talk, "A Man Never Stands So Erect As When He Stoops to Help a Child."

There has been an increase in crime of 14½ per cent since last year, the speaker said, and more than 34 per cent since 1951 in all major crimes except robbery. Quoting from federal statistics he stated that boys and girls start delinquency at about ten years of age, and of this delinquency 50 per cent have mothers with criminal records. Other contributing factors are drinking fathers, no love, no recreation and parents who do not care what he neighbors think about them. This was from a survey into the lives of 500 families of delinquent children, he said.

Mr. Simons pointed out that the people working in Scouting are trying to do something about this and are training boys at the age when delinquency starts. The height to which boys will climb, he said, is determined by the height to which we lift them. Boys need leadership first and then example.

"You are doing a tremendously important work in the community," he told the Scout leaders. "You are an instrument of God, holding the boy in your hand, seeing that he develops character, personality, good deeds."

The invocation and benediction was given by the Rev. Lee F. Soxman, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Church.

Presiding over the meeting was C. A. Phillips, chairman.

Blue ribbon awards were presented by Mr. Phillips as follows: to Troop 66, Joe Wright, Scoutmaster, and Troop 58, Leo Coxon, Scoutmaster for the Camporee; one to Troop 52, Charles Hofheins, Scoutmaster, Troop 69, Kenneth Schreiner, Scoutmaster, and Troop 66, Joe Wright, Scoutmaster, for the Council Show; and for the February meeting for wonderful displays, two blue ribbons to Troop 58.

Julius Stohr, council organization extension chairman, for the four-year period prior to 1956 on the theme "Scouts Forward on Liberty's Team," presented the gold bells for the leadership and silver bells for a quality program.

These two bells were presented to Troop 151, Troop 54, Cub Pack 67, Troop 69 and Troop 150. Pack 58 showed increased membership each year on the Onward Liberty team and ribbons for registering on time went to Troop 69 and Troop 150.

L. E. Moody, Scout executive for the Lake of the Ozarks Council, stressed the fact that leaders give from 300 to 400 hours of the year to Scouting but that the Scoutmaster is one of the three top men in a boy's life, and usually is second to his dad. Behind the unit leader is the district committee. There should be proper recognition to the wives of Scout leaders, he said, and cards were presented to Mrs. Truman Crammer, Mrs. Orville Wolfe, Mrs. Charles Hofheins, Mrs. Paul Mowry, Mrs. Odell Hilburn, Mrs. Joe Wright, Mrs. Kenneth Schreiner, Mrs. C. A. Phillips, Mrs. Fred Brummet, Mrs. Bill Hiatt, Mrs. Ray Rodick, Mrs. Roy Kline, Mrs. Harry Naugel.

Top flight awards were presented by Abe Silverman. These are the highest awards any district can bestow on Scouters and they went to the following den mothers: Mrs. Gloria Bennett, Mrs. Ruth Ann McFadden and Mrs. Orville Wolfe.

Scouter keys were presented to Cub Scoutmaster, Fred Bennett, Pack 58, Charles Hofheins, Troop 52, and Clyde Waggoner, Troop 150.

Awards were presented to those who have five years in registered Scouting: Ralph Kreisel, Bill Hiatt, Virgil Herrick, Ray Dawson, Alvin Heynen, James Woodsmall, Joe Wright, Emmis Sutherland, Dick Snow, Fred Bennett, Oscar DeWolf and Mrs. Gloria Bennett.

Awards were presented to those with more than ten years in registered Scouting by Dick Snow: Abe Silverman, ten years; Dr. L. S. Geiger, 20 years; Cline Cain, 30 years; Charles Maggard, 30 years; Julius Stohr, 25 years; Bill Hurlbut, 20 years; Charles Hofheins, ten years; Harry Naugel, ten years; Ray Rodick, ten years; Gene Herrick, 15 years; C. A. Phillips, 20 years; Paul Anthes, Jr., 15 years.

Reports were given by Abe Silverman, finance chairman of the district, Fred Bennett, leadership training chairman, Ray Rodick, advancement chairman.

The program opened with a real life picture of three Boy Scouts representing the Cub Scout, the Boy Scout and the Explorer Scout, at which time the Scout oath was given. It closed with the American flag background and the singing of the national anthem.

Cockpit Lens Shows Experimental Plane's Pilot Was Buffeted

EDWARDS, Calif. (AP)—A camera mounted in the cockpit of the Bell X-2 rocket plane shows that Capt. Milburn G. Apt. Guffalo, Kan., received a violent buffeting before he was killed in the crash of the experimental plane.

Photographs of the last moments of flight of the needle-nosed craft that holds the world's speed and altitude records were released yesterday by the Air Force.

They show that Apt. who was making his first flight in the plane, was thrown about the cockpit when he went into a turn after pushing the X2 to a record speed of 2,200 m.p.h.

The film shows Apt. reaching for the handle to detach the cockpit capsule from the rest of the plane. He was unable to eject himself from the cockpit, however, and it smashed to earth with him inside.

An Air Force report of the Sept. 27 crash here said Apt. was apparently dazed or injured in the banging around he received in the cockpit and was unable to complete the ejection procedure.

Brig. Gen. J. Stanley Holtner, commander of the Air Research and Development Command's flight test center at Edwards Air Force Base, said speed was not the cause of the accident.

"The turn may have caused the craft to pitch and roll violently," he said.

Jill-of-All-Trades Adds to Laurels; Housewife, Mermaid, Welder, Seamstress

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

BROOKSVILLE, Fla. — Geanie Brooks has been a welder, carpenter, tractor-and-truck driver, store clerk, fruit packer, waitress, lumberer and an electrical wirer.

At present, she keeps house for a husband and four children, performs underwater ballet, crochets, dabbles in photography, assists in costuming for a mermaid show, and spends her spare time (?) in reading.

Unusual? Perhaps. But Geanie, affectionately known as "Our Miss Brooks," knows what she wants to do and makes it her business to learn how to do it.

Geanie was born and raised here in Brooksville, Fla. She quit school at the age of 16 — it was during World War II — studied welding and got a job in a Tampa shipyard. At night she studied accounting.

The war over, Geanie married Vernon Brooks, a lumberer. Together they built their own home. When that major task was completed, she spent her spare time operating a tractor and driving a heavy truck to help Vernon in his work.

About the time Shirley Ann, the first of four children, was due to arrive, Geanie switched to lighter tasks. She became a fruit packer. When she felt she wasn't able to keep pace with the other workers, she quit, studied her mistakes, and returned to work — the fastest packer in the plant.

In the next few years the Brooks family experienced rapid expansion. After Shirley Ann came Jimmy, and then Rebecca Jean. No sooner had Mrs. Brooks settled in to a new job than Randy was born.

It was while filling in as waitress for a restaurant in Weeki Wachee, 12 miles from Brooksville, that Geanie came upon a new and exciting outlet for her energies. Well accustomed to being housemaid and nursemaid, she was included to be mermaid at Weeki Wachee Springs.

The WW mermaids remain underwater for 30 minutes at a time, breathing air through rubber hoses. Air-hose breathing is quite a trick, even for accomplished swimmers.

And, in addition, the girls must perform underwater ballet numbers, eat, drink, and do a bit of clowning, all the while "smiling for the public."

When Geanie, who says she will try anything, consented to become a mermaid, there was only one catch: she didn't know how to swim.

In a grueling training program, Geanie Brooks learned to swim and accomplished air-hose breathing in seven weeks. Today she can dive to 100 feet, release the air hose and slowly rise to the surface. While spectators sit breathless, she calmly performs a variety of graceful ballet poses, never seeming to run out of air.

When she takes a "busman's holiday," Geanie spends her days off spear fishing in the Gulf of Mexico.

Despite all her accomplishments, Geanie has set herself new goals for the future.

True to her Jill-of-all-trades reputation, she hopes to master book-keeping and accounting.

Bus Driver Yells At the Wrong Person

DENVER (AP)—Bus driver Marvin Muck yelled "Aw, shut up" at the driver of a black sedan. Then he learned the driver was Mike Carroll, an investigator for the district attorney.

Carroll flagged the bus to halt, ordered passengers out and told Muck to report at the district attorney's office with his lawyer.

The passengers had to wait for the next bus.

Muck said the sedan refused to yield the right-of-way to his bus at a downtown corner. When he blew his horn, the driver yelled at him. That's when Muck yelled back.

McKinley gave baby shoes to all boys born at the turn of the century. Williams, the first to learn to walk in them, was born April 20, 1900, in Birdstown, Ill.

Critics Say Men, Women Are Getting Too Much Alike

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Some critics of this civilization say it is one in which men and women are getting too much alike.

There is no doubt the sexes are acting more alike every year as the result of modern woman's compulsion to share every right formerly held by man alone.

They talk alike—if anything men are a bit more interested in house-hold topics, while women lean more to baseball and politics; and often dress alike, particularly in their leisure hours. The two-pants suit may be out of date, but now that wives have discovered the comfort of slacks the two-pants family is right in style.

Worst of all, men and women are even beginning to look alike, most markedly in the younger generation. Only a teen-ager to-day can look at another teen-ager and tell at a glance what gender it is.

Some pessimists say the similarity of the sexes has reached a point where half the time they can't be sure whether they're dealing with a man or a woman.

"It's particularly hard on picnics or a fishing trip," said one. "Then even grandmas dress like grandpas, and nobody but their own kids could be sure which is which."

However, there is no reason yet to get hysterical. A careful impartial observer can always distinguish between the sexes.

Here are a few ways in which you can tell whether any human being is a man or woman, no matter what it wears, what it says, or how it cuts its hair:

If it goes through a revolving door without lifting an arm, it's a woman. If it does its fair share of pushing, it's a man.

If in a poker game it says, "cover your cards, dope, I can see them," it's a man. If it can see every card in your hand and keeps right on looking, it's a woman.

If paying its bills gives it a sense of security, it's a man. If running up bills gives it a feeling of freedom, it's a woman.

If it always offers you a cigar, it's a man. If it always is asking you for a cigarette, then waits for a light, it's a woman.

If it sees a fly buzzing in a spider's web and brushes the insect free, it's a man. If, instead, it watches to see how the spider operates its trap, it's a woman.

If it always takes the first seat offered by a restaurant headwaiter, it's a man. If it never accepts the first seat and is sure another location would be better, it's a woman.

If it always climbs into a taxi ahead of you, it's a woman. If it always pays the cab driver when it gets out, it's a man.

If it asks you to dance, it's a man. If it gets mad because you don't ask it to dance, it's a woman.

If it crosses its legs without noticing whether anyone is looking, it's a man. If it won't cross its legs unless someone is looking, it's a woman.

If it takes off its shoes in a movie, it's a woman. If it takes off its hat in church, it's a man. If it backs up to you and asks you to fix a stuck zipper, it's a woman. If it sternly and silently solves its zipper problems by itself, it's a man.

If it will give a two-bit handout to any seedy tramp, it's a man. But if it gladly spends its whole life cooking and raising kids for a no-good ungrateful bum, it's a woman—every time!

Any questions?

Nixon Makes His Last Bid To Industry

EN ROUTE EAST WITH NIXON (AP)—Vice President Nixon flies East today for a final crack at the nation's biggest industrial centers after declaring the new international crisis more than ever calls for a leader with President Eisenhower's military experience.

In his final California speech of the campaign last night, at San Diego, the vice president brought to the fore Eisenhower's military qualifications but also continued to lay stress on the issue of peace.

"If we are to win a war," he said, "it is essential that our President be a great commander in chief during wartime. And during today's critical times it is just as important that we have a great commander in chief if we are to win the peace."

Eisenhower is "the greatest commander in chief America has ever had" while Adlai Stevenson is a "jittery, inexperienced novice," he said.

He attacked Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nominee's use of the Israeli-Egyptian crisis in this final stage of the campaign.

Stevenson has said the outbreak of fighting in the Near East shows that Republican claims of peace in the world were "tragically less than the truth."

Nixon coordinated his comments on the Near East crisis with the White House, talking by phone with Sherman Adams, top Eisenhower aide, and getting a full briefing on the latest developments.

He challenged Stevenson to say "what different policy would he have followed in the Near East which he thinks would have kept

Dog Gulps Too Fast

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP)—An eager retriever that gulped too soon will be released from the hospital this week.

Blackie, a 1½-year old Labrador, is recovering from a "kelectomy," the first such operation on record here. What happened?

His owner Elmer Herron has been training the dog to catch his keyring and return it. Last week, Blackie made the catch but threw his head back too far and swallowed nine keys.

A veterinarian tried the more conservative methods of removing the keyring from the alimentary canal but all failed. He then resorted to surgery.

Adlai Injects Middle East In Campaign

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Adlai E. Stevenson injected the Israeli-Egyptian fighting into the campaign today with the assertion the Eisenhower administration dismissed a proposal he made to keep peace in the Middle East.

He leaves by train today for New York, where he makes a series of speeches before flying into Pittsburgh for a major address tonight.

Time: 9:30 p.m., EST.

The Democratic standard bearer, pushing his bid for Pennsylvania's possible crucial 32 electoral votes, told a thunderously applauding audience here last night that he made his Middle East proposal last Armistice Day at the University of Virginia.

"Needless to say, this proposal was dismissed by the administration even as they are now dismissing my suggestion that we take prompt steps to stop the experimental explosion of hydrogen bombs," he declared.

In that speech at Charlottesville nearly a year ago, Stevenson said, he proposed the United Nations undertake "patrol duties in the areas of tension" to avoid bloodshed and violence by keeping "the troops of these antagonists apart."

He said that "tragically serious trouble" broke out in the Middle East two weeks after "the President appeared before you on one of those Republican television productions and told you he had 'good news' about the Middle East."

An audience which overflowed the University of Pennsylvania's Palestra, an indoor gymnasium where seats were provided for more than 12,000, gave Stevenson a big ovation and boomed lustily every mention of Vice President Nixon. Police estimated the audience at 20,000.

There were boos also on two occasions at his mention of Eisenhower.

Douglas Predicts GOP Victory in Missouri; Sees Absentee Key

NOEL, Mo. (AP)—Herbert Douglas, Republican candidate for senator, today predicted that he will be elected along with Lon Hocker, Republican candidate for governor, in a vote that will carry Missouri for Eisenhower.

"I cannot say too much about individual voting," Douglas said. "It is evident that we will win if the people who want good government vote."

"By less than one and one-half vote per voting precinct in Missouri, you nominated me as your candidate for U. S. senator. The absentee vote in Missouri could well decide the outcome."

Douglas said he agrees with the statement of George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, that "the union man never had it so good." Farm prices have risen an average of 11 per cent since Jan. 1, Douglas said.

"This is a sound and true prosperity," he continued. "If Mr. Stevenson and a Democrat Congress are elected in November, we will be set back from an economic standpoint."

Foggy River Boys Headline Songfest Here

Frank S. Land, founder and secretary general of the Order of the DeMolay, headquarters in Kansas City, is endeavoring to create a revival of interest in community singing with DeMolays leading the way, and the first state-wide songfest will be held in Sedalia at Convention Hall, Liberty Park on Nov. 17 at 8 p.m.

The songfest will be supervised by R. Eugene Britain, director of education for the Order of DeMolay, who, in addition to the songfest has secured some outstanding entertainment from over the state.

The headliner will be the foggy River Boys, recognized as one of the nation's foremost quartets in the field of regional and country music. They are drawing nationwide acclaim for their work in radio, television, recordings and through personal appearances. The quartet, composed of Charles Hodge, lead singer; Earl Terry, first tenor; Don Taylor, bass; Livy Freeman, accompanist, and Monty Matthews, manager and arranger, continues to sing the kind of songs that have made the quartet famous. Their specialty music from the sacred and spiritual field, and their unusual treatment of Western and Country Music as well as popular melodies is delighting audiences everywhere.

The Ararat Shrine Quartet from Kansas City will be on the program, too, and are also good entertainers.

To date, on the program will be the Sedalia Missouri Pacific Men's Chorus, and Britain is not yet certain about other entertainers.

The songfest is open to the public and free, with DeMolays expected to attend from all over the state.

Reports Say Negro Was Severely Beaten But Left Alive

WILDWOOD, Fla. (AP)—Investigators seeking Jesse Woods, 39-year-old Negro who allegedly said "Hello there, baby" to a white schoolteacher, heard reports today that he was hauled out of his city jail cell and severely beaten by a group of white men but was left alive.

Woods has not yet been found. He was taken Sunday from a cell that bore marks of violence, including bloodstains and a broken lock.

Two investigators were questioning men who apparently saw the night violence. One of the witnesses said Woods was flogged but was alive and that he was left on a little-traveled road near here.

Woods was placed in a jail cell at his own request for protection. He had been booked earlier on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but had been released.

To The Voters of Pettis County:

The names of Judge Henry I. Eager, Judge Clem F. Storckman and Judge Henry J. Westhues of the Supreme Court are submitted to the people for retention as judges of the Supreme Court under the provisions of the non-partisan court plan of Missouri.

All three of these men are able jurists and most worthy of being retained in their present positions. By secret ballot, the lawyers of Missouri have by a very great majority endorsed each and all of these judges for retention in office, which endorsement certainly shows their standing with the Missouri Bar.

We, the undersigned, chairmen of the county committees of both parties and members of the Sedalia Bar, endorse these men and urge all voters, regardless of party, to be sure to procure the non-partisan "Judicial Ballot" when you go to the polls on November 6th, and vote YES, (scratch NO) to retain all three of these worthy judges in office.

World Wheat Yield in 1956 Beats Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today that world production of wheat this year was a record 7,510,000,000 bushels — 130,000,000 more than last year.

Increases were reported in all continents except Europe and Australia where significant reductions occurred. Winter damage caused a smaller crop in Europe, while excessive wet weather was the factor in Australia.

The department said world exports of wheat and flour during the 1955-57 marketing year may approach the record of 1,066,000 bushels set in 1951-52, reflecting improved economic conditions in importing areas.

United States exports were forecast at 415 million bushels.

The department said indicated farmer participation in the government's new soil bank program may cut this country's 1957 wheat crop to about 740 million bushels, or 236 million less than this year.

Under that program, farmers get government payments for taking land out of production of crops in surplus supply.

A crop of 740 million bushels would be below market demands and would allow some of the surplus wheat stocks to move out of storage and into use.

The department said that because of drought in the Great Plains, farmers and country elevators have been slow to market wheat from this year's crop. This has contributed to price increases.

Looking ahead, the department said widespread heavy rain in drought areas would increase selling which would be expected to reduce prices.

On the other hand, it said, some further increase in prices might be necessary to induce freer selling of wheat if drought conditions persist.

Reports Increasing Acceptance of Using Fluoride in Water

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An ever increasing acceptance of fluoride water as a means to decrease tooth decay is reported by Dr. C. E. Presnell, director of the state bureau of dental health.

Speaking at the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers, he said a million Missourians now drink fluoride water and that 12 communities, including St. Louis, have fluoridation.

"The opposition to it has been based on the flimsiest reasons," he said. "People have become hysterical over something that has proved to be safe and sound. This opposition has crystallized into about 80 different opinions ranging from the idea that it is a plot between the Bolsheviks and the American Medical Assn. to the belief that it is too expensive."

The speaker said tests showed that fluoridation reduces tooth decay by 60 per cent in permanent teeth and 54 per cent in baby teeth.

The injured were taken to Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance, where Dr. A. L. Walter attended the Brandhorst girl, and Dr. C. G. Stauffacher attended the Claycomb and Major children.

Mr. and Mrs. Major had brought the children to Sedalia early in the evening to "trick or treat," then they all went to a drug store for more "treats." They had started back home and were driving west on Fifth Street when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Thelma Nadine Glick, 30, 668 East 16th, was driving her 1955 Oldsmobile sedan south on Montauk, when the cars collided. Patrick R. Tordigliova, Whiteman AFB, a passenger in the Glick car, escaped injury.

The Oldsmobile struck the left rear door and fender of the Chevrolet, causing it to spin around and bound backwards over the curbing and up the terrace of the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bolton, 400 West Fifth. The car stopped just short of the porch. The Glick car swerved around and headed west.

Adopt $2 Million Budget for 1957

CAPE GIRARDEAU (AP)—The Missouri General Baptists Assn. yesterday adopted a budget of two million dollars for 1957.

Of that amount, $700,000 will go to the Southern Baptist program outside of Missouri, with the remainder being slated for use inside the state.

The convention also took action to increase its annual budget by 50 per cent by 1960.

The convention approved a five million dollar capital needs goal, with $2,900,000 for colleges and $2,100,000 for benevolent institutions.

He stated that would be completed soon. W. E. Bingham praised his committee chairman, Cecil Owen, on his work on the convention and tourists division, of which Bingham was director.

Mike O'Connor reported briefly on the aviation and military affairs division of which he was director. Carleton Kelley, director of transportation and traffic, reported on his work of laying the groundwork for plans that would be carried on by his successor.

The other two retiring directors, Ivan Berry and Maurice Griffin, were not present.

The new directors received the assignment of divisions: Everett Stephenson, agriculture; Cecil Owen, convention and tourists; John Snod

MFA Members Give Views On Soil Bank

COLUMBIA, Mo., (AP) — The Missouri Farmers Assn. (MFA) questioned some of its 153,000 members on the soil bank program and elicited varied replies like these:

"I don't think the soil bank is what we need. It is just for the big farmer. . . . 'not a paying proposition for a small farm' . . . 'it is good' . . . 'will cut down on overproduction' . . . 'did not help the family sized farmer' . . . 'fool program'."

Elmo Cowan of Safe, who had his entire wheat allotment of 15 acres in the soil bank called the plan "the best long range agriculture program ever introduced to the American farmers." He added he believes the bank will reduce surpluses "whereby farmers will receive better prices for their wheat in the future." He said, however, the allotment should be restricted to the owner of the land.

Oren E. Sutterfield of Ellington said the program does not fit his farming operation. Sutterfield said the only family sized farmer who gets assistance under the plan "is the one that has outside employment and wants to abandon farming for a few years."

"Only the big operator," said R. C. Harvey of Savannah "who can take out 100 or more acres and then buy fertilizer with the money and raise just as much as before, gets anything in such a fool program."

Harry J. Donze of St. Marys said he needs all his land in production. He said the 1956 acreage reserve "was paid to those that already had made up their minds to reduce corn acreage before the bill was passed. It did not help the family sized farmer."

Said Roy D. Miller of Columbia, who has 95 acres of corn and wheat under the program: "It is good. If carried far enough, it will solve agriculture's problem."

The bank "will cut down on overproduction with pay, relieve labor shortage and build soil fertility," said Arthur H. Schnuck of Boonville, who has 30 acres in the soil bank.

And Murry E. Glascock of Hartsburg, with 25 acres under the program replied:

"For this year it isn't too bad, but I don't think the soil bank is what we need. It is just for the big farmer — in the first place you have to have an acreage allotment which most small farms don't have."

The MFA opinion survey was released Saturday by the organization.

For Peace Or War---Ike's The Man

Like one grassroots Missourian remarked this morning: "Britain and France sure pulled a whizzer."

Satellite fox-terriers are snapping at the heels of the Soviets and the present United States administration is knee deep in a muddy election campaign. Neither in position to swing the big stick at the bull dogs of Britain or the poodles of France.

Israeli's march into Egypt and British-French quick maneuver proposing to land troops in the same area has all aspects of a cooked up affair, timed to coincide with the off-balance position of Russia and the United States. The supposition is that Britain and France have taken all the Arab nonsense in Algiers and the Suez they can stand. They've been itching to move into the Canal Zone ever since the recent unpleasantness occurred with Egypt's Nasser. For its part in the dangerous military sideshow which invites world-wide repercussions, Israeli is supposed to get a slice of Arab territory when the present flare-up sputters out. That is if another world war isn't sparked by all this saber-rattling.

In the meantime election campaigning in the United States continues with President Eisenhower keeping a wary eye on the Middle East fracas to avoid any glancing blows, while ducking the arm-waving of Slugger Adlai in the election arena.

The surprise turn in world events may have an effect on election results if within the next few days the gravity of the situation increases. The probable effect would be in favor of Eisenhower, a man better qualified to cope with conditions where the military may be involved, or where the same must be restrained. Ike's capacity in this respect has already been demonstrated. He and the nation both want peace, but if it has to be the other way we'd rather have Ike in there calling "squads right" than a rookie just coming off kitchen police duty.

The latter would be a worse "whizzer" than the one Britain and France pulled.

Washington Merry-Go-Round--

A Lady of Force Causes Drew to Duck

By DREW PEARSON

ST. PAUL — The teachers of the Minnesota Education Association are a sedate and studious group, well removed from the political shot and shell of Washington. Imagine their surprise, therefore, and I suspect consternation, when they were catapulted, for reasons not of their doing, right into the middle of a hot verbal exchange between Hagerty and Pearson.

It all started when they invited me, many months ago, to speak October 26, at their convention in St. Paul. And it came to a head as I got off the plane at the Minneapolis-St. Paul airport and walked right into a carefully laid trap. Now that I look back on it I have to admire the skill of those who laid the trap, though I didn't admire it at the time.

It has been my private boast that I know how to handle my own colleagues of the press. "Cooperate," has been my formula, "and they will treat you right." I am revising that formula as of today.

As I got off the plane, my colleagues of the press shrewdly suggested that we go inside the airport lounge where it was quiet and hold a press conference regarding what Jim Hagerty had just said about me. Unsuspecting, and completely confident of my ability to handle the press, I cooperated. Once inside the lounge I was a little surprised to be confronted with a full dress array of TV cameras and microphones. I hadn't expected this but I still cooperated. By that time there was nothing else I could do.

My comrades-of-the-press then proceeded to give me the business, as I have sometimes given it to others, as to whether Ike left the Minneapolis airport without shaking hands with local bigwigs, whether his car did leave the line of procession ahead of the others and how much of a mild release he had.

Irate Lady
During the course of this so-called press conference I noticed a lady lurking in the background. We were not introduced.

I suspected from the dagger glint in her eyes that she was not playing on my team, and as I rose to bow myself away from my heckling comrades-of-the-press, the lady moved into position. The TV cameramen knew what was coming and moved in with her. She then proceeded to unsheathe her verbal claws and tear me into little pieces.

She was Elizabeth Heffelfinger, Republican national committeewoman, mother-in-law of Philip Wilkie, whose father, a much revered late friend of mine, once ran for President of the United States. Mrs. Heffelfinger is the wife of F. Peavey Heffelfinger who heads one of the biggest grain companies in the northwest, is director of the Great Northern Railroad, the Northwestern National Bank, the Minneapolis Grain Exchange, the National Grain Trade Council, and who, as Republican finance chairman, raised millions for his party.

For a moment I thought of reminding Mrs. Heffelfinger that her husband was the man who persuaded President Eisenhower to remove the Truman Administration's ban on rat droppings in wheat; with the result that for two years the American public had no government restriction whatsoever against this unwelcome addition to the American diet.

Hiding FDR's Health

It is never pleasant to get into a hassle with the President of the United States or his aides. I have got into far more hassles with Democratic presidents than Republican, but as set forth in the current "Confessions of a 'S.O.B.'," in the Saturday Evening Post I don't enjoy it. I joke about it and pretend to enjoy it, but I don't.

Nor is it pleasant to diagnose the health of a President. That was probably why some newsmen ducked discussing it when Roosevelt was running for reelection in 1944. As a result the world was plunged into a crisis in April 1945 just as the war was ending, and as the gravest problems of peace lay ahead.

Today the greatest prospects for a free world lie ahead; and today the politicians around the

Fighting in Egypt Might Be Planned

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The missing link in the fighting in Egypt is this: Did the British, French and Israelis plan it together? It looks that way. All three stood to gain by what they did.

What the Israelis wanted was to help wreck Egyptian President Nasser, whom all three hated. He was the rallying point for Arabs against Israel. What the British and French wanted was to wreck Nasser and get back the Suez Canal.

But the effects of what the British and French did went far beyond their move to seize the canal. They ignored the United Nations, although pledged to work with and uphold the world organization.

They made American leadership of the free world look as sick as a straw hat in the rain by telling Secretary of State Dulles nothing of their plans to go into the Suez area and then ignoring President Eisenhower's personal plea not to.

They made their move at a time when the West might have profited by the Russian killing of Hungarians in Budapest. Now world attention has been diverted.

The French and British had been angered and frustrated by Dulles ever since Nasser seized the canal last July. They wanted to take military action against Nasser to take back the canal.

Dulles proposed a couple of plans for negotiating peacefully with Nasser—which didn't work out but managed to forestall military action until now.

G. W. Paige, two miles southwest of Sedalia, has just had completed a six-room residence with basement at his farm.

The British and French apparently made up their minds he wouldn't block them again. They shut him off from information for 10 days. American ambassadors for that time were not able to see the heads of the French and British governments.

On Monday — when the Israelis marched into Egypt — the British and French ambassadors were absent from Washington. But on that day the British Minister J. E. Coulson, told Dulles the American - British - French agreement of 1950 — to stop any aggression in the Middle East — was dead. Nevertheless, the White House said Monday night, this country would honor that agreement.

Too much emphasis should not be placed on the idea the Western alliance is wrecked. This country needs the British and French against Russia, just as they need the United States when this blows over.

The owner of the beauty shop was being charming and attentive to her customers. She stopped to ask a question of this one, pay a compliment to that one and to laugh appreciatively at another's small joke.

At that moment, if you had been asked to describe her, you might have summed up her manner by saying she was graciously business-like.

Then a maid walked in. The owner of the shop whirled around and gave her a dressing down that was painful to hear.

She didn't even lower her voice. She raised it so that every harsh word she spoke was clearly heard by everyone.

After that one incident you would have described her manner as rude, overbearing and without any sympathy for the feelings of others.

Republican Campaigners Putting on the Best Show

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau

Wandering about in the crowds that come to see Ike gives one the impression that his health is the greatest suppressed issue of the campaign.

The President always gets impressive turnouts. He did in New York last Thursday. It wasn't a sensational street crowd, not for the Big City. But Adlai Stevenson didn't do as well two days before.

People come to see Ike for three reasons. They like him. He's President. And most important, they want to see first hand how he looks. They're not satisfied with reports from the doctors.

It's not surprising, but it is rather interesting, that people tend to see Ike according to their political persuasion. A Democrat is apt to shake his head and say he looks poor. A Republican beams and says he looks fine.

Nevertheless, the Republicans have been wise to get Ike on the road. Seeing is believing for the non-dedicated, and the President does look well considering his age and burdens. Also, the fact that he gets about speaks for itself.

When standing midship in that bubble top Lincoln of his, the President radiates vigor and enthusiasm. He has an extraordinary facility for catching the eye of someone in a crowd. He cranes to spot the audience in office buildings. Ike manages to smile and wave at individuals. At least that's the impression he gets across.

On the platform Ike combines command and authority of presence and voice with geniality. Adlai has command authority too. It's obvious when he enters a room. But it's harder to catch when he stands on the platform before a crowd. Sometimes it's there, and sometimes it isn't.

Stevenson prefers the polite wave, not much different from doffing the fedora to milady fair. Ike shoots his arm up. It's a hearty gesture. The big thing, though, is that Adlai seems to wave at the crowd and not the people in it. Ike waves at individuals.

A bit of thought and better planning could improve the Stevenson. Candidates should put on the best production they can. Adlai doesn't. Here's an example:

When the presidential plane swoops into an airfield Ike is first man off. An officer takes a peek to make sure the debarking machine is in place, then Ike steps out and waves. He's at the center of the stage. All eyes are on him. When Adlai's plane lands, the debarking contraption is put in place. Then there's a wait. Finally individuals connected with the Stevenson show straggle out. The candidate emerges in the center of a group, and often is on the ground before the assembled faithful realize it.

These are little things, to be sure. But they are important. Adlai has been campaigning hard.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Patterns on the wallpaper sometimes bother us because they are too flamboyant. The bold designs and the bright colors stir up a feeling of claustrophobia. We feel closed in by the contrast of the wallpaper and the personal feeling of smallness of our own way of life.

Likewise, intricate small patterns on the wall distort our sense of color. We follow the lines from corner to corner and become mentally lost as a rat must feel in searching for the right way through a maze.

Even a blank wall can create frustration when we are bored with circumstances. A person who lies endlessly in a hospital bed longs to have a long brush and to paint pictures on the wall and ceiling. He feels that the blankness could be transformed into something meaningful.

All of us want to project something of ourselves onto our surroundings. We do not wish to pass through our days of life without leaving some impression of having been there. Furthermore, we do not want to merely follow the lines of a complex society.

We cannot live from moment to moment trapped by bold circumstances, circumscribed by trivia nor surrounded by a meaningless void. Fortunately we have the freedom to influence our surroundings and other people by the way we live.

Our love, our faith, our hopes and our prayers influence others. Let us live creatively!

TV Comedy Disappoints Some Viewers

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Eight people scarcely constitute a quorum for a public opinion poll. But here are the opinions of eight concerning "Born Yesterday" as presented on Hallmark Hall of Fame Sunday evening.

Two enjoyed it thoroughly. Six, including this viewer, suffered from varying degrees of disappointment with the Garson Kanin comedy.

All the disappointed expressed great admiration for the talents of Mary Martin, who played the part of Billie Dawn. But all felt she failed to equal the roll of the dumb-smart, tough-tender dame which Judy Holliday created on Broadway and also played in the movie version.

"The trouble with Mary Martin, though it's not really a trouble," said one woman, "is that she's a lady. And Billie Dawn just isn't—in fact, she ain't no lady."

"The trouble with Mary Martin, and I really like her terrifically," said another woman, "is that she played the part with a Southern accent. Maybe it's just because we live in the New York area that I don't think a Southern accent is funny. I mean I think a Brooklyn accent, such as Judy Holliday had is funny or something."

"You mean," a man said, "that a so-called Brooklyn accent conveys a toughness of spirit and a tenderness of the flesh that's exactly right for the role?"

The woman blinked. "Maybe that's what I meant," she said dubiously.

Only one of the eight tapped (as we say in the poll business) failed to praise Paul Douglas, who brought to television the role of

Concordia Couple Buys Hotel, Plan Renovation

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lampe, Concordia, who have operated the Shady Rest Cafe for the past 30 years, have purchased the Concordia Hotel from Mrs. Lena Dreyer, and plan to renovate the property so it can be operated as a combination hotel, restaurant and bus stop.

Present Shady Rest facilities will be sold and several homes will be built there for apartment purposes.

The Concordia Hotel was constructed about 30 years ago, shortly after old 40 Highway was built and has been operated by the Dreyers since then.

School Officials Ban Elvis Presley Look

ROMEO, Mich. (AP)—The Elvis Presley look is gone, real gone, from Romeo Community High School.

Fifty-two male students who lately sported the long sideburns and ducktail haircut affected by the rock 'n' roll singer agreed to appear in class to day with trimmed hair and clean shaven faces.

They had no choice. Any shaggy holdouts face quick expulsion.

School Supt. T. C. Filippula issued the shave-and-haircut edict after teachers complained about the unshorn appearance of some of their pupils and the "defiant" attitude it fostered.

"They had sideburns and long hair that you would think any man would be ashamed of," Filippula said. "And blue jeans sliding off their hips."

Two Romeo barbers, learning of the ruling, offered a free trim for any of the 52 Presley types who could not afford to pay.

Nation Has Variety Of Autumn Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There was a variety of weather across the nation today, most of it about normal for midautumn.

Rain fell in a north-south belt over the Mississippi Valley and headed eastward with showers in prospect during the day in most areas east of the Mississippi River.

It was wet along the East Coast from Pennsylvania southward through South Carolina, with rainfall light in most places.

A mixture of rain and snow dampened the northern Rockies, with light rain and scattered showers westward into sections of the northern and central plateau regions and the northern and central Pacific Coast areas.

Runaway Children Gather Provisions While They Travel

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Delphia and Larry Fluss are back under adult supervision today. And the policeman who said they were resourceful was proven a splendid judge of character.

They ran away from home last Thursday — for the fourth time — empty handed except for school lunches.

When police at Millbrae flagged them down on busy El Camino Real 30 miles north of San Jose last night, they had:

Two bicycles, about $9 cash and a heap of groceries.

Delphia is 11 and her brother is 10. They did not say where all this wherewithall came from. As usual the children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fluss were not talkative. They said they had been sleeping at difference places. Those groceries drew the attention of a woman who had read about their disappearance. She called police.

Cox Changes Minnesota Into Winners

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Some call him Chesty. Others say he has just the right kind of risky confidence to give Minnesota a psychological boot in the trousers when the Gophers need it most.

But no one who has watched quarterback Bobby Cox transform what looked once like a hesitant young football team into a bunch of eager title hunters could low-rate his impact.

The day Cox convinced Coach Murray Warmath he could make the Gophers go without frittering away a scoring chance by impulsive play was the day Minnesota started to roll.

For all his bubbling exuberance and dead-eye passing reputation built at Washington two years ago, Cox didn't exactly enthral the Gophers when he first whisked in from the West Coast as a transfer student.

A natural free-talker, he aroused some early skepticism. The team felt more comfortable and moved more smartly in spring practice with home-bred Dick Larson at the controls of the Gopher split T.

"Winning the first-team quarter back job meant plenty to me," Cox said. "When Murray picked Larson instead of me it meant I still had to prove myself. Well, that was all right. I made up my mind to do it."

Cox's new teammates eventually warmed up to him. They were solid Cox fans on the first-game trip to Washington in September when Cox went back before Washington partisans in an enemy uniform.

It wasn't until last week, however, that Cox was put in charge of Minnesota's No. 1 platoon. His performance just a week before against Illinois was slick and sure. Against Michigan he was practically dazzling as the Gophers stayed unbeaten and moved into No. 8 berth in the Associated Press poll.

A handsome 22-year-old junior, Cox is a smoothie with a clear-headed look at the future and the means to get there.

"I want to go into pro football when I'm finished with college," he said. "When I left Washington I knew if I couldn't make it in the Big Ten I couldn't make it with the pros."

Podres Faces Operation On His Spine

BROOKLYN (AP)—Johnny Podres, the skinny Yankee killer, revealed today that he faces a spinal operation—but that he's going to pitch as long as possible before going under the knife.

The 24-year-old Brooklyn Dodgers' left-hander who beat the New York Yankees twice in the 1955 World Series was discharged from the Navy less than a week ago. He has taken an off-season job as an automobile salesman hard by Ebbets Field.

"I'll go as far as I can before I get the operation," said Podres. "I certainly don't want it now."

"Maybe I can go a year and maybe I can go five before it becomes a necessity. The doctors can't make a better estimate."

Podres suffers from spondylitis, a disintegration of the small bones which link the spinal column with the body. He's had the ailment almost all his life.

He said that when he was taken into the Navy last March, he was put on limited duty immediately.

"After I left Bainbridge and my boot training," he recalled, "I was sent to the Norfolk Naval base and I really didn't do much and I guess I was able to. I caught I got in about 80 innings, but it wasn't very good baseball."

"Starting on Sept. 19, I was in the hospital for five weeks. During that time, they gave me heat treatments and back-strengthening exercises. I watched the series from there."

Podres pointed out that his miseries have troubled him all through his baseball career too.

"You know," he said, "I've never pitched as many as 160 innings in one year for the Dodgers and it is all because of that same trouble. In fact, one year I was able to go only 88 innings at Montreal."

"If he does wind up undergoing surgery, it does not mean that he is finished as a pitcher. But he may require as much as a one-year rest."

Al Kaline Is Named To All Star Second Team by Press Poll

NEW YORK (AP)—Detroit's Al Kaline, who barely missed making the Associated Press major league All-Star team, selected yesterday by a vote of the Baseball Writers Assn., was dropped from the second team listing through an error in tabulating.

Kaline received 79 votes, ranking fourth and losing out as a first team member when Boston's Ted Williams collected 83.

In copying the tabulations, the Associated Press inadvertently omitted Kaline's name from the second team and included Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, who actually was seventh in the balloting for the outfielders.

Duseks Meet Myers, Dobie In Tag Match

The next wrestling attraction in Sedalia came on Tuesday night, Nov. 6, when a team-tag match long waited will headline the star-studded card. The tag events have become pro-wrestler's biggest thrill-producers and fan attraction.

Gust Karras, matchmaker for the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, has lined up an extra-ordinary attraction for the Sedalia Armory. Contracted for their first joint invasion of the local mat scene this season are the notoriously rough Dusek brothers—Ernie and Joe, who are more widely known in international wrestling circles as the Omaha "Wrecking Crew."

Karras, after signing the Duseks, offered Sonny Myers the chance to form a team to challenge the Duseks' reign as the tag team kings. Myers jumped at the chance and immediately contacted Jim Dobie at Independence, Mo. Dobie accepted Myers' partnership offer and so it will now be an All-Missouri team pitted against the Duseks.

Ernie recently returned home from an extended tour of Canada and the New England states. He joined his brother Joe, who holds the Missouri state crown, to re-enter the tag team wrestling field in the Middle West. Joe wasted no time after Ernie's return to issue a flat offer to meet any team combination which challenges the Duseks' claim to the team championship.

The heated rivalry already existing between Myers and Joe Dusek will add an interesting sidelight to next Tuesday's team clash here.

The swaggering and boastful Mighty Atlas, who is called the world's strongest professional athlete, will also storm back to the Army ring, seeking to extend his regional victory string which has already reached nine matches in a row since his arrival in the area two weeks ago.

It was Larry Hamilton who got the matchmaker's nod to face the Mighty One of the mat. Hamilton quickly accepted the bid, asserting that he's anxious to pit his strength and physical stamina against the arrogant Atlas.

Atlas skyrocketed to national recognition about two years ago after he appeared in 80 nationally-televized matches out of Chicago's Marigold Arena. His feats of strength have amazed millions of TV viewers and Atlas has indicated that he plans to perform several of his amazing strongman feats when he returns to the ring here next Tuesday.

The opening contest will pit Myers against Ernie Dusek in a one-fall encounter which will give the Sedalia area fans their first chance to see Sonny buck up against another member of the Dusek clan.

The Legion has placed tickets on advance at the Pacific Cafe and the Midway Shoe Repair shop. The matches next Tuesday night will start at 8:15.

Ebbets Field Is Sold But New Owner Will Let Dodgers Remain

BROOKLYN (AP)—Ebbets Field, home of the Brooklyn Dodgers for 43 years, has been sold—but the new owner is a member-in-good-standing of the Flatbush faithful. The Brooks will remain as tenants for the next three years and can continue through 1961 if circumstances dictate.

"However," said Marvin Kratter, a real estate tycoon, who said the purchase price ran into seven figures, "I would never intend the Dodgers from staying after 1961 if it were necessary and would never stand in their way in any manner in keeping the franchise in Brooklyn."

Iowa Hopes For Victory Over Michigan

IOWA CITY (AP)—Iowans are all steamed up about their undefeated football team and they will turn out in record numbers Saturday yelling for the first victory over Michigan since 1924.

Although Rose Bowl talk is taboo around the squad, nearly every football tongue in the state is wagging about Iowa's chances of a Pasadena visit. A victory over Michigan or Ohio State (here Nov. 17) and a triumph at Minnesota Nov. 10 would do it.

Iowa, unchecked in five games and the surprise Western Conference leader with a 3-0 record, has been jinxed by Michigan since a 9-2 victory in 1924. There have been 12 games since and all were Iowa defeats except a scoreless tie in 1929.

Iowa has gone to Ann Arbor the last three years, suffered some miserable breaks, and lost 14-13 twice and 33-21 in 1955, when Michigan scored three touchdowns in nine minutes of the last quarter.

But Saturday the Wolverines are coming here, and the enthusiastic Iowa fans are hoping the tide will turn against a Michigan team defeated 20-7 last week by Minnesota.

Most Iowans are a bit amazed that Coach Forest Evashevski has brought his squad through victories over Indiana, Oregon State, Wisconsin, Hawaii and Purdue to a No. 7 rating in the Associated Press poll. With seven players listed as 1955 starters lost by graduation, this was supposed to be a year of rebuilding.

Actually, Evashevski started his reconstruction in the final 1954 game. He opened with seven sophomores against Notre Dame and lost 17-14 on Paul Hornung's 28-yard field goal in the last two minutes.

More important, Iowa had the nucleus of two good, hard-hitting lines, a foundation unequalled for the building of a winning football team.

The major problem was the lack of backfield speed.

Evashevski answered with a switch from his multiple offense to a winged T with single wing blocking and a balanced line.

Hunters Take 73 Deer From Area at Knob

Knob Noster State Park reported a total kill of 73 deer Tuesday in the opening day of the 1957 gun season on deer. The 73 total included 45 bucks.

State Trooper Sheldon Abney, of Warrensburg registered the first kill of the day in the Knob Noster area with a 156-pound buck.

Russell Shepard, also of Warrensburg, felled the largest animal Tuesday, a 208-pound buck.

Among an estimated 250 to 300 hunters in the area around the State Park during the day, three women were successful in getting their quota. Daisy Mae Parsons, of Kansas City, nailed a 131-pound buck; Mrs. Martha Price, Knob Noster, felled a 130-pound doe; Mrs. Christine Hulse, Warrensburg, killed a 72-pound doe.

Other hunters from this area who registered deer kills were: Al Swihart, 218 West Avenue, 168-pound buck; R. E. Stockdell, 1905 East Seventh, 64-pound doe; Charles E. Masoner, Knob Noster, a large buck; C. L. Henderson, Knob Noster, 137-pound buck; Robert Williams, Knob Noster, 153-pound buck; Lloyd Lockard, Knob Noster, 64-pound doe; Bill Rainey, Knob Noster, 60-pound doe; Carl M. Smith, Knob Noster, 77-pound buck and Eddie Adams, Knob Noster, 130-pound doe.

Otis Thornburn, Field Agent for the Missouri Conservation Commission from Warrensburg, announced the Knob Noster State Park is off-limits to deer hunters and that the hunting area is actually on private property surrounding the park. He said there must be no hunting within the park.

Tremendous Task Ahead—Colorado Club Gets Ready To Battle Big Oklahomans

By FRANK PITMAN
BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—"Our kids aren't afraid of Oklahoma, they're going to try to beat them," Coach Dal Ward of Colorado's once-beaten football team said today.

Colorado's sophomore-dominated club faces a tremendous task here Saturday in trying to snap the 35-game winning streak of the nation's No. 1 football outfit. But the Buffaloes should put up a good game on the basis of previous showings at home against the Sooners.

Oklahoma has found the going tough at Boulder. They won the 1950 game, 27-18; in 1952 it was a 21-21 tie and in 1954 it was 13-6.

Last year at Norman the Sooners crushed Colorado, 56-21 after the Buffaloes bolted to a 14-0 second quarter lead.

Colorado has won five straight after being humiliated, 35-0, by Oregon in the season opener. The startling comeback of the Colorado team is explained this way by Ward:

"1. They have great spirit."
"2. The players are in excellent condition — the best conditioned team I've ever coached."
"3. There's good competition for every job. Nobody can take it easy and expect to play."

"4. We're playing 11 sophomores on the first two teams and they've developed faster than anyone has a right to expect."

"5. Our seniors have become real team leaders to add balance."

"The quarterbacking of sophomore Boyd Dowler has been exceptional," Ward said. "If he continues to improve he'll be the best we've ever had."

Dowler is a 6-4, 200-pounder who can run, pass and kick. He's been a clever ball handler in guiding Colorado's multiple offense that combines single wing and T formation plays.

Two other conference games are on the Big Seven agenda this weekend and the Buffaloes will be especially concerned with the outcome of the Missouri-Nebraska meeting at Lincoln.

The Tigers are the only remaining threat to Colorado's hopes of making the Orange Bowl. The conference will send its runner-up to Miami under an agreement that prevents a league team from going two years in succession.

Coach Don Faurot's squad is undefeated in league play and will be out to make it three straight. Kansas and Kansas State, which both fell victim to Colorado meet at Manhattan in a traditional intrastate rivalry.

Pricer just barrels through with his sturdy 5 feet and 10, 189-pound frame. When quarterback Jimmy Harris needs a couple of yards, he'll call for Pricer.

Since he has been playing in 1954, he has only made two touchdowns. In his sophomore year, he scored one on a pass and against Kansas State this season he made his first rushing.

Notre Dame's inexperienced linemen, who have had to shoulder the blame for most of the team's difficulties this season, should get some satisfaction out of their 40-0 licking by Oklahoma last Saturday.

They held the Sooners to 236 yards by rushing and passing combined—their lowest total since Oct. 10, 1953.

As a result, Oklahoma's offense average dropped considerably. NCAA service bureau statistics revealed today. Instead of averaging 459.5 yards per game on total offense, the Sooners are down to a 414.6 yard average. And their rushing rate tumbled from 396.5 yards to 346.6 per game.

Both those figures still are good enough to lead all the major colleges. Only Navy, with 404.6 yards per game, is above the 400 yard mark.

Navy, Notre Dame's net opponent, gained 488 yards against Penn to move up from seventh to second in offense. The Midshipmen also are fifth in passing.

The Otterville basketballers play Pilot Grove there Friday night.

On private property surrounding the park. He said there must be no hunting within the park.

Easy Victory Is Predicted For Oklahoma

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—The 1957 edition of the Farmer's Almanac is at hand. It predicts a long, cold winter. No matter how cold it gets, the chill won't equal that of last weekend when football teams paid no attention to the script and spilled upsets everywhere.

There were 14 wrong guesses sandwiched among the 34 correct ones, an average of 708. That brought the season's total to 206-63 and 765.

Heading into this week, just as if the almanac promised nothing but sunshine.

Oklahoma over Colorado: Colorado annually gives Oklahoma its hardest Big Seven battle. It still will be easy for the Sooners.

Georgia Tech over Duke: Coach Bill Murray says his team has a good chance to dislodge the Engineers. The almanac discloses that Tech gets stronger in November.

Tennessee over North Carolina: Primarily because of John Majors, Michigan State over Wisconsin: Clarence Peaks is out for the year but the Spartans have quit reading their clippings.

Texas A&M over Arkansas: One of the many surprises last week was Arkansas' triumph over Mississippi. If the Porkers can stop Jack Pardee and company it will be the upset of the season.

Ohio State over Northwestern: Too many Buckeyes.

Stanford over UCLA: It means the Rose Bowl for the Indians . . . and they know it.

Texas Christian over Baylor: Jim Swink still with the Frogs.

Syracuse over Penn State: Jim Brown gives the Syracuse eleven an edge.

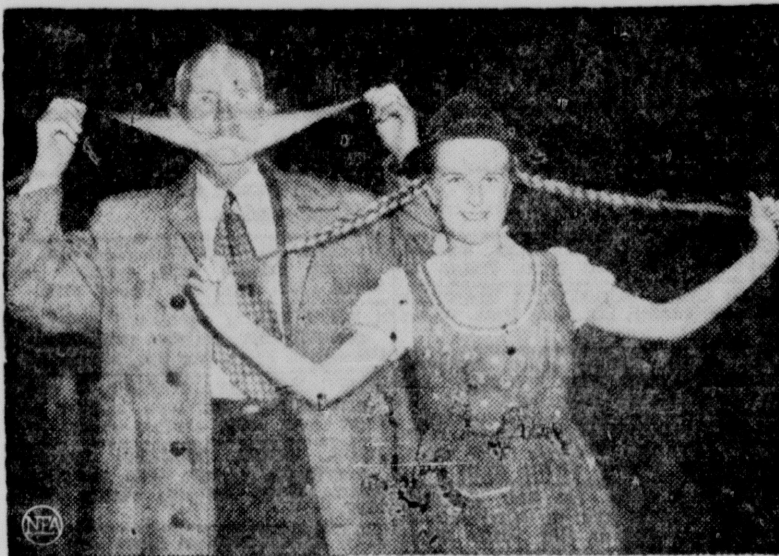

Skipper over the others in a hurry.

Veteran Movie Maker Works For Nothing

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Director William Wellman is reliving his youth in films these days, and it's literally a labor of love. He's not even getting paid for it.

The veteran movie maker is producing, directing and cowriting "Lafayette Escadrille" at Warner Brothers. It's a true-life story of that famed flying team of World War I.

"I've been trying to talk producers into making it ever since I finished 'Wings' in 1927," said the hard-talking, waspish Wellman. "But that's nothing new with me. I had 'A Star Is Born' for a year before I could get any action on it. I had 'The Oxbow Incident' for three years."

How did he finally get a deal for "Lafayette Escadrille"?

"By telling Jack Warner that I would produce, direct and write it for nothing," he replied. "It's the same deal I made with Harry Cohn for 'Gallant Journey.' I got absolutely nothing for that one."

"Well, I did get something, after all. A shirt I stole from Glenn Ford while we were making the picture."

"Gallant Journey," a story of pioneer gliding experiments in California, was a turkey, and Wellman readily admits it.

"I can make flops too," he admitted. "This could be one."

Wellman was a pursuit pilot in World War I until he was shot down and invalided home with a broken back. His exploits won him the Croix de Guerre with four gold palm leaves, and he wrote about his experiences in a post-war book, "Go Get 'Em."

The picture "Lafayette Escadrille" is taken from life, he declared.

USDA Reports Fourth Drop In Farm Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—A week before the election, the Agriculture Department has reported another drop in farm prices—the fourth in as many months.

The department said average farm product prices went down nearly 1 per cent between mid-September and mid-October.

In the Democratic-Republican battle for the farm vote, this new development could be significant.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson, in a statement put out by the department, termed the price decline "slight." He said it was a movement normal in the fall when heavy marketings are in progress. He also said farm income for the full year should average 4 per cent above last year because of larger production in 1956.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, on the other hand, said the price decrease "reveals the Eisenhower-Benson farm program for what it is—a failure."

Coming after three consecutive months of price decreases, the October decline left farm price levels 2.18 per cent above a year ago and 5.4 per cent above last December. However, prices were about 27 per cent under the record peak of February 1951, during the Korean War.

In its report, the department attributed the October drop largely to declines in the prices of meat animals, corn, poultry, eggs and cotton. Increases were reported for dairy products, some vegetables, cottonseed and wheat.

Health Officials To Check Milk Supply For H-Bomb Effect

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The health commissioners of St. Louis and St. Louis County say they will study a request by a group of 28 women that milk supplies here be checked for strontium-90, a radioactive material in the fallout from a hydrogen bomb blast.

Dr. J. Earl Smith of St. Louis and Dr. Herbert R. Domke of the county both indicated, however, that their departments are not now equipped to make such tests. Domke said last night the widespread nature of the problem would mean state or federal agencies, such as the U. S. Public Health Service would "have to be involved."

The request came in a letter which quoted scientists as saying strontium-90 . . . enters plants used as food by cattle.

In this way strontium-90 becomes part of our milk and enters the bodies of our children, the letter said.

The effects of H-bomb testing have been a controversial issue in the presidential campaign, with Democrats contending the United States should take the lead to end the tests and Republicans asserting they are necessary to maintain U. S. supremacy.

Beaman-Arator Club Elects New Officers

The Beaman-Arator 4-H Club met Oct. 24. The meeting was called to order by the new president, Tommy Grimes.

Bobby DeMoss, Wayne Taylor, Francis Bransetter, associate member, Billy Bransetter and Robert Hyatt joined the club. There were 13 members present.

Eldon McClain served refreshments after the meeting. The next meeting will be Nov. 3, when the yearly projects will be lined up and hosts and hostesses for the coming year chosen.
